I have many years experience working as a producer and line producer in the film/advertising industry, I have worked with directors from all over the world and have had the opportunity of working in many varied locations both in Australia and overseas.(you can view a selection of locations below) I love working as a team and collaborating from conceptual stage through to delivery of the final film, and sharing my experience with my colleagues, my varied work experience allows me to bring a wealth of information to any project. I love being on set and enjoy the camaraderie with the crew and love a new challenge on every job..
