Over the last 17 years Tony has racked up an impressive list of credits which include hundreds of TVCs for clients such as Unilever, Kellogg's, Pepsi and Telstra. Tony has also shot more than 130 music videos with a credit list that reads like a "who's who" of the Australian music industry including artists like Silverchair, Shannon Noll, George and Eskimo Joe. In 2005, Tony photographed his first feature film, 48 Shades. In 2008 Tony shot his second feature Storage and in 2017 Tony lensed The Merger.

Since becoming a DOP, Luu has picked up numerous awards, winning Best Cinematography at Tropfest 2006 as well as 50 Australian Cinematographer Society Awards and 5 Golden Tripods. Tony was awarded ACS accreditation in 2009.

Tony's energetic and creative approach to collaborating with the director allows him to fulfil the visual potential any motion picture project. With a sharp eye for lighting, Tony specialises in bold and graphic frames that accentuate the story.

Tony is at the forefront of new cinema technology, having experience with film and all of the new digital formats, including Arri Alexa, Red, Phantom, and Sony F55.

Tony is based in Australia.
